

I am in favor of allocating 5.250 to 5.400 MHz to the Amateur Service on a domestic (US-only), secondary basis as proposed by the Amateur Radio Relay League. I believe that amateur radio operators will use the frequencies to provide emergency communications and experimentation that will advance the state of the art.

Jack Daane
KR6CD